TEACHING AND LEARNING
JAPANESE VERBS
AND PARTICLES:
FROM A CONTRASTIVE
PERSPECTIVE WITH SOME
INDIAN LANGUAGES

SPECIAL TALK BY PROF. DR. PRASHANT PARDESHI
NATIONAL INSTITUTE FOR JAPANESE LANGUAGE AND LINGUISTICS,
TOKYO, JAPAN

In this talk, I will offer a contrastive analysis of verbs and case particles in Japanese and Indian languages highlighting similarities and differences between them and propose the application of the contrastive analysis to Japanese language teaching and learning. Further, I will introduce the ongoing project at NINJAL aiming to developing databases for teaching/learning Japanese verbs and particles.
※ Talk will be given mainly in English and Japanese.

Date: 7th Aug. 2023 (Monday)
Time: 7:30 to 9:30 AM
Venue: ONLINE (via ZOOM)
Organizers:
Development of a Japanese Function Expression Wordbank for Japanese Language Learners Project,
National Institute for Japanese Language and Linguistics,
Tokyo, JAPAN

Registration method:
Pre-registration by 4th Aug. 2023 required through the Google Form (scan the QR code).
Zoom link will be send to your email address on the 5th Aug. 2023

National Institute for Japanese Language and Linguistics

Japanese section, Department of Foreign Languages, Savitribai Phule Pune University (SPPU), Pune, Maharashtra State, India.